

Raise money, save time, do it online!

Online sponsorship, it's so simple. Visit www.justgiving.com

Set yourself a realistic target. Tell all your supporters your goal and ask them to help you reach it. No need to chase any cash or cheques!

It is free, quick to set up and safe for sponsors to use:

1. Go to www.justgiving.com/tncf
2. Click on the "Raise Money" button
3. Click on Create your page
4. Select/enter your event and follow the instructions
5. Choose a memorable link name e.g. www.justgiving.com/name
6. Include a photo and personal message
7. Email your fundraising page link to everyone that you know and don't be afraid to send out reminders to those who may not get around to sponsoring you the first couple of times of seeing your page
8. Add the link to your email signature footer

This is what an online fundraising page looks like.

The screenshot shows a Justgiving fundraising page for 'Jumping for New Life!'. The page creator is Anita Onwuegbuzie, and the event is Tandem Skydive on 29th Sep 2007. The fundraising target is £250.00, and donations to date are £262.67. A progress bar shows 25% completion. The page includes a photo of Anita Onwuegbuzie, a 'SPONSOR US NOW' button, and a personal message: 'Thank you for visiting my fundraising page. I have decided to do a Tandem Skydive for the NCT in September as part of my "things to do by the time I am 30" list. I guess jumping freefall with a parachute at 10,000 feet is a scary thought but it is an activity that I encourage volunteers to do for my job as an events fundraiser so I really should see what they actually go...
