Seller's Disclaimer

Sunday 26th April 2015
Hugh Christie College, Tonbridge

I understand that:

- The NCT will not accept any responsibility for any goods that are lost/stolen/damaged during the sale
- I am responsible for setting out my goods between 8.00am and 8.30am
- I am responsible for collecting my unsold goods between 1pm and 1.15pm
- Large items and/or large quantities of items left behind after the sale will result in a £10.00 fine to cover removal costs. This will be deducted from my seller's cheque
- The NCT receives the following proceeds from the sale of my goods (25% for sellers, 20% volunteer on the day of the sale/night before & 15% if part of the NNS team)
- I will receive a payment cheque usually within a calendar month of the sale
- The NCT reserves the right to withdraw any of my items that the volunteers deem unsuitable for sale. I understand that these items will be kept to one side for me to collect at the end of the sale
- I will pre-sort my goods as required and all will be labelled correctly (minimum 50p, then 50p increments) with barcodes printed on suitable paper. If I do not use barcodes or they do not work correctly, I understand that the item will not be sold.
- I will package the items and label the box/suitcase correctly with my Seller Number
- I have read the Sellers Instructions document explaining which goods I cannot sell
- I will provide a stamped self-addressed envelope on the day of the sale for my cheque to be sent to me

Many thanks for your co-operation.

All proceeds are in aid of the National Childbirth Trust.

The National Childbirth Trust offers information and support in pregnancy, childbirth and early parenthood. It aims to give every parent the chance to make informed choices. We try to make sure our services, activities, and membership are fully accessible to everyone.
